Moid Alwy

Chief Supply Chain Officer

Image

Moid oversees ATD's sprawling supply chain network and operations. Moid and his team are responsible for all supply chain activities including strategy and innovation, planning, forecasting, transportation, FLX FWD, multi-site management, and last mile delivery.

In an era of cascading dependencies, this work is crucial, and Moid's expertise in overall network steering, data & analytics, and critical transformation initiatives positions him to guide ATD in these areas.

Quote from —Moid Alwy, Chief Supply Chain Officer

The end-to-end supply chain has so many moving parts. The key to success is a clear and strategic view of what we're going to accomplish. Without that, you'd just be reacting."

—Moid Alwy, Chief Supply Chain Officer

Prior to joining ATD in August 2022, Moid spent nearly 20 years at Target, where he began as a lead analyst and rose through the ranks to become vice president of global supply chain and logistics.

He holds a degree in Information Systems and Mathematics from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. Additionally, Moid earned a Lean Six Sigma black belt certification for exceptional leadership capability.
